Dear Mr. Rosenfeld:

In Mr. Dulles' absence, I am responding to your letter of March 30, in which you request that I substitute for him at your annual banquet on May 9. I regret to say that I will not be available on that weekend.

We would like to nominate, for your consideration, [redacted] STAT [redacted] who is Director of our Senior Research Staff on International Communism. Mr. Allen W. Dulles
 Director, Central Intelligence Agency
 Washington 25, D.C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Professor Henry L. Roberts, director of Columbia's Russian Institute, has passed on to me your generous offer of 21 February to designate an officer of the Agency to speak to the Russian Institute Student Group at its annual banquet. As president of the Student Group, I should be very pleased to accept your offer.

Naturally we were disappointed that you could not speak to us yourself, although we well understood the reasons for your refusal. We would be delighted, however, to have Mr. Robert Amory, Jr. appear in your place. If he is available, I would write him a separate letter.

The banquet will be on the evening of Saturday, 9 May, here at Columbia, if that is convenient for Mr. Amory.

May I thank you for your extreme kindness in this matter.

Sincerely,

Stephen S. Rosenfeld
